SEPTEMBER 2016

D-I-Y Intervention: Friends & Family

An instructional and inspirational workshop for professionals, laypersons, clergy, family members, concerned significant others and/ or friends of anyone that has a direct or indirect relationship with an active or recovering addict. You will learn step-by-step the skills required throughout the intervention process as you gain deeper understanding of self-mastery, codependency, spirituality and the process of change in order to interact differently and more effectively with a resistant addict. Attendees will have completed one full intervention from start to finish by the end of this workshop.

Thursday, September 15, 2016 6:30p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
